

GROUP STUDY ROOMS – GENERAL USE GUIDELINES AND PRIORITIES:

When NOT RESERVED, rooms may be used on a first-come, first-served basis in accordance with the following priorities:

Overall priority for the use of rooms is given to EVMS students.

Priority is given to primary clients (individuals or groups) using curriculum-related audiovisual resources/equipment.

Group study rooms are intended for use by groups who are studying together. Groups have priority over one or more people studying individually. Individuals must yield or share the space.

Use of the group study rooms is contingent upon following library policy and upon observing the needs of others for quiet study.

Personal belongings may not be left in the study rooms in order to “hold” them; items left unattended will be discarded or consigned to the lost-and-found.
