

FINDING EXTRAMURAL RESOURCES FOR COMMUNITY-BASED PROGRAMMING
MARCH 14, 2013, HOFHEIMER AUDITORIUM
12:00 PM- 1:30 PM

- I. 12:00. Introduction: Importance of Community-Based Programs in the Academic Setting
William J. Wasilenko, Ph.D., Associate Dean for Research

- II. 12:05. Steps to Becoming Competitive for Extramural Funds
Kate Ferguson, Ed.D., Associate Professor & Director of Pediatrics Division of Community Health & Research
 1. Developing a Varied Community Funding Portfolio
 2. Developing Relationships
 3. Spreading the word
 4. Finding funders
 5. Writing grant proposals

- III. 12:30. EVMS Faculty Panel. Successes & Challenges: Funding EVMS Community Programs
Joseph A. Aloï, M.D., Associate Professor of Internal Medicine; Christine Matson, M.D., Chair of Family & Community Medicine; Terri Babineau, M.D., Director of Community Outreach; Jeff Johnson, DHSc., Executive Director of Operations & Compliance

- IV. 1:10: Exploring Donor Support: Working in Partnership with Development
Serena Amerson, Major Gifts Officer, EVMS Office of Development

- V. 1:20: Wrap-up: Importance of Community-Based Programs in Increasing Diversity
Mekbib Gameda, VP of Diversity & Inclusion.